

Doris Ghitelman
Recognized for Outstanding
Achievements

Doris Ghitelman of William Raveis Real Estate received distinguished honors as one of the Top 100 Producers for 2007 within the company's 1700 sales associates. Furthermore, her exemplary client service earned her the Top Customer Service award in the Southport Office of William Raveis.

"I am not surprised at Doris' top achievements again this year. She brings to her clients intimate market knowledge, superb use of technology to market their properties and responds to their needs with sensitivity and professionalism. This combination of skills and caring have placed her in the top 1% of the Realtors within the Company" stated Chairman and CEO, Mr. William Raveis. "We are delighted to have Doris on our team, and have the greatest confidence in referring her to clients seeking to buy or sell a home in Fairfield County."

Doris Ghitelman is a Certified Residential Specialist and has also earned her GRI & ABR credentials. "In managing my business, I strive to go beyond what's expected. Technology allows me to enhance my professionalism and stay connected at all times. I always carry my Treo (pocket pc) because I can pull up, anywhere I happen to be, the entire MLS (Multiple Listing Service) database, look up listings, schedule showings, and receive a summary of all of the showing activity on my listed properties. Having instant access to the information I need right on the spot, when I need it, allows me to give my clients a leg up on the market."

Doris who lives in Fairfield enjoys gardening, knitting, race car driving and photography. She can be reached at 203 856-8022, or by visiting her web site at www.askdoris.com.
